STARTING LINEUP
	NAME	BT	L/R	PD	TRAITS	AGE	SCOUTING REPORT
C	Buddy Seerey	25	R			25	On the verge of fulfilling potential—we hope.
1B	Roy Keltner	18	R		P+	34	Fading slugger who still has a little pop.
2B	Marla Spence	28	R			31	Not the slickest defender, but gets the job done.
3B	Renee Haefner	27	R			31	Queen of the hot corner.
SS	Sonia Valdes	34	L		P+	33	A perennial all-star and three-time MVP.
LF	Frances Butka	29	R		D+	36	Best arm in the league. Great smile, too.
CF	Bob Smoot	30	R		P++	32	The home run leader, four years running.
RF	Al Ruszkowski	26	R			23	Young but tough. A future star.
BENCH
OF	Jack Bagby	22	L			26	A utility outfielder who knows not to complain.
OF	Hal Embree	19	R		S+	25	Plenty of speed, and not much else.
INF	Tom Littlefield	25	L			22	Praying that Sonia Valdes finally retires.
INF	Willie Howser	18	R			24	Will have to stick this year, or get cut.
C	Sarah Trank	20	R			24	A smart defensive catcher with a mean smile.
STARTING ROTATION
SP	Mike Dart	14	L	12	K+	32	The toughest lefty in the division.
SP	Barrow Candini	6	R	12		29	The toughest righty in the division.
SP	Jug Sinser	14	R	8		35	Plays in Dart & Candini’s shadow. Still great.
SP	Paula Klay	12	R	4	ST+	28	A rubber arm, a rubber grin. Always useful.
SP	Guy Schalk	8	R	4		30	Bad temper, and not quite enough talent.
BULLPEN
RP	Thornton Malt	8	R	12		36	His slider seems to break harder every year.
RP	Gordon Hoag	12	R	8		28	When his curve is right, he’s unhittable.
RP	Floyd Nakamura	9	L	8		22	A truly sinister lefty.
RP	Anna Curtright	10	L	4		34	Ex-starter, now a reliable bullpen weapon.
RP	Tomás Nazal	7	R	4		34	Addicted to video, advanced metrics and data.
RP	Walt le Carré	11	R	4		22	Flamethrower. Not enough control...yet.
RP	Skeeter Haynes	14	R	-4		24	As trustworthy as a used-car salesman.
